Re: USA v. Christopher Clough, Cr. No. 17-cr-37-01-JL

Dear Mr. Clough,

I am writing in response to your letter received by the court on March 4, 2021, in which you request grand jury documents. Any requests for relief in this court will need to be filed as a motion with the court stating what relief it is you are requesting. I am enclosing a pro se litigant handbook that you may find helpful.

As to your request under the Freedom of Information Act for letters written by the United States Attorney's Office and FBI reports, please note that the United States Judicial Branch is not subject to the Freedom of Information Act. See 5 U.S.C. §§ 551(a)(B), 552(f). Even so, the types of documents you are requesting are not generally maintained by the court. Any documents available in the clerk's office would have to have been filed in a case or presented and admitted as an exhibit in a trial or hearing. Documents filed in a case on the public docket are available to the public without the need to file a FOIA request.

Very truly yours,

Daniel J. Lynch, Clerk
